

Contracts and Pricing Manager

Social Impact is a global development management consulting firm. We provide monitoring, evaluation, strategic planning, and capacity building services to advance development effectiveness. We work across all development sectors including democracy and governance, health and education, the environment, and economic growth. Since 1997 we have worked in over 100 countries for clients such as US government agencies, bilateral donors, multilateral development banks, foundations, and nonprofits.

Please apply for this position on Social Impact's website found here.

Position Summary:

The Division of Contracts, Budget & Analysis (DCBA) provides "full cycle" support of the Contracts function, from the initial stages of proposal and budget development through award negotiation, implementation, and close out. The DCBA provides such support to Social Impact's four Technical Program Divisions. The Contracts and Pricing Manager position is intended to work with the Sr. Director of the DCBA to provide support to Social Impact's Program Management Unit (PMU), the Division responsible for managing Social Impact's long term USG contracts.

Responsibilities:

- Review client solicitations, participate in the development of questions to be submitted, as well the budget strategy for proposals
- Develop and peer review budgets and full cost/business proposals for submission to clients.
- Prepare and review task order budgets for existing IDIQ contracts.
- Participate in award reviews, negotiation, and start-up of new projects, providing guidance on contract terms and conditions to program teams
- Support the general contract administration of each project within the Division portfolio, including issuance of consultant contracts, subcontracts, and procurement contracts
- Prepare and submit correspondence to the client for approvals, waivers, funding notifications, modification requests, etc.
- Review and prepare budgets for contract modifications and client meetings
- Provide support to staff on budget development and management; assist with client reporting requirements and internal analysis needs
- Assist in the development and delivery of Contracts training and budget training modules
- Perform other budgeting or analytical tasks, as assigned
- Other related duties/tasks as may be assigned

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree, preferably in business, international relations, finance, or related field, or the equivalent in education/experience;
- Minimum of 4 years of experience with the administration of USG and non-USG awards working with the FAR/AIDAR, CFRs and relevant OMB circulars, other donor/client regulations, etc.;
- USAID, Dept. of State, and other international development donor experience, cost/price analysis, indefinite quantity contracts, and grants and commercial contracting highly desirable;

- Proficiency with Microsoft Office and Excel required;
- Team Player with good analytical, written and verbal communication skills;
- Organizational skills and a capacity to handle multiple tasks under tight deadlines;
- Knowledge of budget preparation requirements and practices, covering cost-plus-fixed fee, time and materials, and other pricing methodologies, especially for international development programs and agencies;
- Knowledge of the compliance environment and relevant rules and regulations within the international development sector highly desirable;
- Foreign language skills a plus;

Please apply for this position on Social Impact's website found here.

Come join our energetic and innovative team! We offer you the opportunity to play a leading role in the growth of our company, work as part of a creative and committed team, and make a difference in the well-being of our world.

To learn more about Social Impact, please visit our website: <http://www.socialimpact.com>

SI is an EEO/AA/ADA Veterans Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or protected veteran status.

Only selected candidates will be contacted for an interview. Please, no phone calls.