

Job Title: Women's Empowerment Program Call for CVs

Job Location: Washington D.C.

Job Description:

The Asia Foundation is a non-profit, non-governmental organization committed to the development of a peaceful, prosperous, just, and open Asia-Pacific region. The Foundation's Women's Empowerment Program (WEP) implements evidence-based programs in Asia that promote gender equality and expand women's economic opportunities, increase women's rights and security, and advance women's political participation.

WEP maintains a database of international development professionals that can be selected for various opportunities, often on short notice. Successful consultants often have graduate-level training, significant international experience, and a depth of expertise in women's empowerment and gender equality programming.

Essential skills and qualifications include:

- At least four years of experience working on women's empowerment and/or gender equality;
- Excellent written and spoken English;
- Strong communication skills and cultural sensitivity;
- Ability to work as part of a team; and
- Emphasis on results.

Experience or knowledge of the Asia-Pacific region is strongly preferred. The Asia Foundation is an equal opportunity employer.

If you are interested in being contacted at some future date for short- or long-term positions with the WEP program, in any of our 18 locations in Asia or our 2 locations in the US, please go to this web address https://forms.asiafoundation.org/TAF_Forms/TAF-wep-call-for-cvs to complete a short form and to upload your CV. We appreciate your interest in The Asia Foundation's Women's Empowerment Program.
